

How Members Subscribe to and Use ACSO's Message Boards

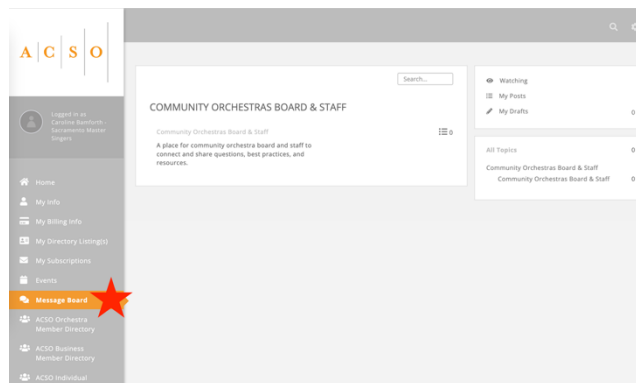

(9/24/25)

ACSO Message Boards help our members stay connected and keep the conversation going between Peer Group meetings. They are accessible via your Member Portal, giving you a space to ask questions, exchange ideas, and share resources with colleagues across our 12 Peer Groups.

This members-only benefit makes it easier than ever to tap into the collective knowledge of our community and strengthen your professional network.

How to Access Message Boards

1. Log in to your Member Portal: Sign in here. (New user? Create your account here first.)
2. Click Message Boards in the left-hand menu.
3. Boards you're already subscribed to will appear under "All Topics."
4. Click on a board to start a new topic or reply to a thread.

How to Subscribe to Additional Boards

1. In your Member Portal, click My Subscriptions in the left-hand menu.
2. Select the Peer Group(s) you'd like to join and click Save.
3. Subscribed boards will then appear in your Message Boards list.

👉 Please note: CEO and Executive Director groups are limited to members in those roles. If you qualify or have questions about Message Boards, contact us at office@acso.org.

Community Guidelines

ACSO's Code of Conduct applies to all Message Board participation. We are committed to fostering a safe, respectful, and inclusive space for sharing. Inappropriate, harassing, or discriminatory content will be removed, and offending users may be banned.

To ensure compliance with antitrust laws, please avoid discussions about:

- Specific prices for tickets, events, or services
- Salaries, wages, or benefits for employees
- Any conduct that could imply coordination or "signaling" between competitors
